SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

The history of the class of one and fifty of the college of the city of Campbellsville, County of Taylor of the State of Kentucky is thus stated.

In the beginning in the ninth and fortieth year of our Lord in the ninth month and on the nineteenth day of the month there entered into this land of learning 184 seekers of knowledge. Some came up from high school where they had for many months been busily engaged in storing their minds with the honey of wisdom, some were green and fresh from distant parts, some came from farms where they had been tillers of the soil, some came leaving behind fame and fortune and others came severing relationship as nephews of Uncle Sam.

And it came to pass as they did enter this land that they were received with wild welcomings and rejoicings by those whom it was decreed should henceforth lead them up the slippery by-ways of knowledge.

Likewise it came to pass that they were received with malicious glee by a certain band of wild beings who were called sophomores and who, because of their fierce taste for freshman blood, did pounce upon them daily and nightly and did cause them to suffer great things and to say in their hearts, "Behold, blessed be the name of education, for because of it have we endured great torments both of the body and of the mind. Verily have we been martyrs to its great and noble cause."

And it came to pass not long afterwards that those wild beings presented a play entitled "The Little Clodhopper." After seeing the play we knew that they were not the wild beings we had thought them to be and as we dwelt long in the land we fell in with the customs of the inhabitants there and their strangeness wore away and we each became as one among the rest.

And it came to pass after some months that their eyes were turned toward their sophomore year and their future graduation, but many, with one consent, began to make excuse. The first said, "I am poor in health, therefore I cannot graduate."

Another said, "I must needs toil at home, therefore I cannot graduate."

A third said, "I am dull and cannot learn, I pray thee have me excused."

And still another said, "I am going to be married and therefore I need not graduate."

So thus did the class decrease in numbers until the whole number at the end of the first year was 169.

Now it came to pass at the beginning of the second year that a decree went out from Dean Roy O. Chumbler that all the people should be enrolled. And all went to be enrolled, everyone into his own class. And they did choose such an able leader as William Smith, surnamed Dean, and to assist him they chose Vernon Calhoun, Vivian Romine, Jean Cosby and Paul Smith.

And the class of one and fifty, in the new dignity of their promotion remembered the days of their own greenness and as the sophomores of their day had done unto them, even so did they unto the new band of youths that came up from the adjoining territory and did show no mercy unto their sufferings and no heed to their lamentations until they were drunk with Hadacol.

So it has come to pass of that 184 that entered this land in the class of nine and forty only 93 will depart. For verily, verily I say unto you that wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to the college, and many there be that go in thereat. But straight is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth to graduation and few there be that find it.

Two years hath the class of one and fifty sojourned in the land and gathered in large portions of the fruits from the Tree of Knowledge. But it is written, "In the day when ye shall have eaten of all these fruits ye shall surely be driven forth from the land. Now, I say unto you, they must depart thence, to go each a separate way to lands they know not of, to do they know not what."

"But, let us not be weary in well being, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

And now may the blessings that ever attend the noble and good and true, follow and abide with us, each and all forevermore. Amen.

Phil Martin

The other night I had a strange dream. It seemed as though I were a fortune teller, able to see far into the future. As I gazed into my crystal ball, I saw a circus--and coming toward me was the manager, John Reid, smoking a cigar. The ring-master, Bill Gibson, announced the acts. Alice Brown, now married, was there with her twelve children. Paul Larimore was right on the job selling pop-corn and peanuts. Jerry Callico, a banker's wife, was there with her girl and boy. Mozelle Hackler, a country school teacher, came with her boy friend. Mary Kendall, concert pianist, was taking pictures of the monkeys, Hammurabi and Kiniska. Austin Pickett was taking a holiday from the farm.

The Scene changes and I see a large department store. The following work there: John Morris, president; Zella Barnes, secretary; Vernon Davis, manager; Jeanne Whitworth, buyer; Charles Stiles, floor-walker; Richard Lyon, shoe salesman; Lois Ann Faulkner, house-wife and salesgirl; Maybell Johnson, kitchen-ware department; Louise Gumm, hosiery department.

Different scenes appear, and I see Sam Underwood driving a Greyhound bus. Charles Rice and Walton Scott are now insurance salemen. Frank Wright is a hotel manager, and Donavon Redford, Charlie Spurling, and Bill Lingle are lawyers. H. P. Ball is a great American poet, and Charles Fair takes Al Jolson's place. Jean Davis, sixth-grade teacher; Mildred Coffman, third-grade teacher; and June Hatter, fourth-grade teacher; teach in the school of which Carl Osborne is principal. Z. T. Lester takes Frank Sinatra's place, and Vivian Romine accompanies him on the piano. Vernon Calhoun owns and operates his own garage. Marjorie Miller is buying material for her wedding dress. Jim Burger is coach at U. of K. Roy Boston is the owner of the Yellow Jacket Cab Co. John De Fevers is a successful farmer. Dr. William Munford, veterinarian, discovers a new cure for disease. Howard Morrison is a news commentator. Oran Graham is a mountain school teacher. Jimmy Wooldridge is a first lieutenant. Paul Smith and Donald Jones are engineers. Jeannine Cosby is married and "raising" a "batch of string beans." Suzanne Turner, Marguerite Helm, Blanche Harris, and Charlotte Eads are happily married. Stuart Lee is a captain in the Air Force. Wm. Dean Smith is a concert choir director. Rebecca Mitchell owns a chain of drug stores. Stanley Baldwin is a hero, and Kenneth Gibson is a fiction writer.

I see a college and its faculty: Frank Noel, president; Lewis Searcy, dean; Dick Parrish, science professor; Leon Eubank, professor of mathematics; Jean Walker, health and art teacher; Jack Wise, coach; Jean Beasley, Herman Scott, and Lanelda Ashby, English professors; Margaret Purvis, commerce teacher; Mary Wilson, a preacher's wife and professor of music; Joy Storie. house-mother; Glenn Ferguson, dietician; Ray Bruce, psychology professor; Sarah Janes, home economics teacher; Mildred Smith, history professor; and Jean Satterly, librarian.

I next see a hospital, in which Jean Shipp is a doctor and Delores Carter and Hazel Knuckles are nurses. Ruth Evelyn Jackson is a dental hygienist and Fred Hardy a pharmacist. "Charley" McKinley is an ambulance driver, and Mary Wigginton is a switchboard operator.

I see a convention of ministers and missionaries meeting in Washington. Those present are Frank Borich, pastor, John, Joy, and Junior Bruce, pastor and family; Ernest Cruse, non-married evangelist; J. F. McKinley, country preacher; Christine Basil, missionary to the Indians; Geniece Pedigo, mountain missionary; Ann Roberson, model preacher's wife; Joan Sims, church secretary; Curtis Smith, minister of music; Wilburt Taylor, city pastor; Bob Hampton, singing preacher; Reva and Eugene Milby, missionaries to Africa; Phil Martin, educational director; Elmer Knuckles, pastor;; Toletis Vincent, pastor in Eastern Kentucky; Merwyn Borders, pastor and songleader in Tennessee; Betty Wood, preacher's wife; Joe Johnson, Dewey Woods, and Roy Easley, pastors; Charlie Phillips, evangelist; and Juanita Rone, cradle roll superintendent. I'll have to wait to see what happens to me; because I awakened.

We the class of 1951 being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of crammed minds, well-trained memory and almost superhuman understanding, do hereby publish this our last will and testament.

We do first direct that our funeral services shall be conducted by our friends, our president and his all-wise and ever competent faculty, who have been our guardians for these past years. Requesting that the funeral be carried on with all the dignity and pomp that our merit and attainments and positions as graduates of "grave and reverend mien" must certainly have deserved.

As to such estate as it has pleased us and our own strong hands and brains to win, we do dispose of the same as follows:

We give and bequeath to our beloved President, Dr. John M. Carter, our sincere love, our deepest reverence, our heartiest gratitude and the unlimited wealth of our eternal memory. In an attempt at partial payment for all that he has done for us during our long years at Campbellsville College, we make over to him, here and now, a heavy mortgage on our future in the Great Unknown beyond.

We give and bequeath to the dear faculty, who have been our all wise instructors, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. No longer need they be awake through the long watches of the night to worry over the uncertainty of whether this one is doing her night's work, or that one will have his or her Trigonometry in morning class, or another will remember every iron-clad rule of compositional technique in the preparation of her essay. It has been a hard strain on them but they have all done their duty and verily now shall they have their well-earned reward.

We give and bequeath to the freshman class, as a student body, Howard Morrison's knowledge of philosophy, art, science, math, history, psychology, English and the universe in whole or in part. We trust the class may be able to survive it.

The following may seem but trifling bequests, but we hope they may be accepted, not as worthless things lavishly thrown away because we cannot keep them, but as valuable assets to those who may receive them, and a continual reminder of the generosity of heart displayed in our free and full bestowal.

FIRST: To our patient and understanding Dean, Roy O. Chumbler, the profound admiration and ever-enduring friendship of the class of 1951, in individual as well as collective manifestation. SECONDLY: To Mrs. William Dean Smith, the balance in our class treasury to be used in buying a pair of rubber shoes for detective work. We are certain these will be needed in dealing with the classes that are to be our successors.

To all future class presidents, William Dean Smith's ability to convince Professor Vaughn of the said President's unerring judgement.

To anybody who needs it, Johnnie (Czar) Reid's bluff. Apply early and avoid the rush.

The subjoined list will be recognized as entailed estates, to which we do declare the class of 1951 the real and rightful successors:

Our seats in class room and chapel. May they endeavor to fill them as advantageously, as promptly and as faithfully as we have done. Our seats in chapel may be taken by whosoever is able to grab them first--that is until Mrs. Chumbler gets around to assigning official numbers to individuals.

Our sophomore dignity. May they uphold it forever, with all seriousness and gravity, endeavoring to realize its vast importance, in spite of their natural lightmindedness and irresponsibility.

Last comes the one thing hard for us to part with. To our successors we must leave our places in the hearts and thoughts of our President and instructors. They will love them, unworthy as we feel they are, even as they have loved us; they will show them all the same tender kindness and attention that they have bestowed upon us; they will feel the same interest in their attempts and successes; the same sorrow when they fail. We trust that the class of 1951 will appreciate all this as deeply as we have done, that it may be their most precious possession, as it has been ours, and the one we most loathe to hand over to them.

Besides these enforced gifts, we leave--not of necessity, but our own free will--our blessing, tender memories of our pleasant associations together, and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstration of the past, and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever.

We do hereby constitute and appoint the said President sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we, the class of 1951, the testators, have to this our will, written thus, set our hands and seal this 29th day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one.
